The Net Lease Group Welcomes New Hire Mark Lewensohn as Senior Director

Atlanta, GA [January 11, 2021] – The Net Lease Group (“NLG”) today announces the hiring of Mark Lewensohn as Senior Director in The Net Lease Group’s Chicago office. Mr. Lewensohn’s career began in the world of public accounting concentrating on commercial real estate tax and audit work providing a unique perspective that he has carried through-out his career. Prior to joining The Net Lease Group, Mr. Lewensohn was a principal investor in single tenant net lease assets with Madison Avenue Capital, LLC. Mr. Lewensohn also spent nearly 10 years as the Head of Acquisitions for Brauvn Real Estate Funds, a Chicago based, private real estate fund, overseeing all facets of net lease acquisitions comprised of more than 200 net lease properties.

Mr. Lewensohn’s primary focus will be to originate net lease transactions of all types honed on more than 25 years of experience executing single tenant net lease fund acquisitions, sale-leaseback transactions, and advising on investment strategy, asset management, disposition and real estate development. Lewensohn will be cultivating new and existing client relationships, providing advisory services to corporate, institutional, and private owners of operating real estate, and facilitating execution of transactions on behalf of NLG’s clients.

Esmael Hill, Managing Principal at NLG commented, “Mark’s wealth of experience and success in the commercial real estate industry and specifically the net lease sector makes him a significant addition to the NLG team. We couldn’t more be thrilled to welcome Mark aboard.”
